ABOUT THE KYSHRM CONFERENCE

The KYSHRM Conference provides a broad cross-section of HR training. From the basics every HR professional needs, to offerings for Csuite leaders, to the latest ideas that are changing the workplace landscape, the KYSHRM Conference helps HR professionals stay abreast of the current HR landscape and look to the future. The heart of the conference is the exhibit hall, which includes 100+ solution provider companies offering a variety of HR resources. Attendees are afforded the opportunity to connect and learn about products/services from exhibitors and sponsors during breaks, meals and receptions.

What SPONSORS & EXHIBITORS Had to Say

We have never attended an HR or industry-specific conference in the past. We had an excellent experience at KYSHRM.

We gauge conferences by the number of demos we're able to schedule. We average around 10 demos per conference. At this event we scheduled 24. Last year we set the record at this event with 39!

This conference was very well put together and executed for exhibitors. We were all well informed, prepared, and more importantly participants were encouraged in the best ways possible to visit the booths.

Honestly, Andrea Flanders, just in awe of how you operate – you made the experience seamless.

Between the event space, the app, the incentives, and the support – it's the best SHRM or HR-related conference I've been to.

Great networking and leads.

All the attendees knew how to use the app and everyone (volunteers) did a great job making sure the conference was smooth and efficient as possible!

Meeting very nice, genuine people and professionals – most who were relevant to our business. Loved the participant interaction.

All attendees are active and enthusiastic. The Whova app is great to use and makes attendees engage with vendors.

Already looking forward to next year!

Thank you so much, wonderful event!

Excellent conference! Thank you for making it fun and effective.

Great job, everyone!

Thanks again to all involved. Kentucky was definitely a top tier state conference for us, and we can't wait to sponsor it again!

Thank you for allowing us to join you.

The communication is so informative throughout the process.

I was not the main contact for our booth, but while looking for the booth it was easy to find. And the people helping were very informative.

Communication was clear the entire time and new info/updates were constantly shared!

Thorough, proactive communications and tools were made available from a very early date.
